Strait Gold to present update October 5 at Focus On Peru

Strait Gold Corporation is pleased to announce that it will present an update of its Alicia copper-gold exploration project October 5, 2011, at Focus on Peru, a half-day seminar organized by On The Ground Group and jointly sponsored by Macleod Dixon LLP, the Minerals Resources Analysts Group and the Peruvian-Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

The seminar will be held at the offices of Macleod Dixon LLP, the event's premier sponsor, at Suite 2300 of the Toronto-Dominion Centre's TD Waterhouse Tower, 79 Wellington Street West, Toronto, beginning at 1 p.m.

To register for the event, go to www.onthegroundgroup.com or contact Wayne Floreani at 416-533-3998, email wayne@onthegroundgroup.com.

Strait Gold Corporation is a Canadian mineral exploration company active solely in Peru and listed on the TSX Venture Exchange. The Company holds a 55% interest, with an option to earn a 100% interest, in the Alicia property which is considered to be the best prospect still held by a junior within the Andahuaylas-Yauri porphyry-skarn belt approximately 500 km southeast of Lima. This belt hosts a number of important copper and copper-gold deposits including: Xstrata's Las Bambas (about 40 km west of Alicia) and Antapaccay (about 80 km southeast of Alicia) in which Xstrata is investing an aggregate of US$5.7 billion for development; the Haquira copper project (also about 40 km west of Alicia), which was recently acquired by First Quantum Minerals; and the Constancia copper project (about 60 km east of Alicia), which was recently acquired by HudBay Mining.
